CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

3 22-04-2019 Heard the parties.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Baliala P.S.Case No.299 of 2018 registered for offences punishable under Sections 447, 341, 506, 307, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner and other accused persons is of throwing acid on the informant, causing injury to him.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the whole family members have been made accused in this case and moreover he is a student and his whole career will be destroyed, if he is not granted anticipatory bail.

Heard learned A.P.P. and the learned counsel for the O.P.no.2, who is informant in this case and they have opposed the prayer for bail on the ground that informant has received serious injury due to acid attack, as such the petitioner does not deserve anticipatory bail. .

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from the date of order and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below on the basis of the materials available on the record.

With the aforesaid observation, this application is dismissed.
