The petitioner no.2 is stated to be the senior teacher in the said school.

The learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that some amount out of the said subsidy of Rs. 6,58,400/- has been distributed to the teachers by cheque and rest of the amount is lying in the account of the school maintained in the Bank, however, alternatively, it is submitted that in case the petitioners are released on regular bail, they can participate in the investigation and prove their innocence, therefore, the petitioners are ready to deposit 50% of the aforesaid amount as a security deposit, subject to the result of the present case. It is further submitted that the petitioner no.1 is languishing in custody since 23.11.2018 and as far as petitioner no.2 is concerned, he is languishing in custody since 24.11.2018.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I deem it fit and proper to direct for release of the petitioners, above named, on regular bail subject to deposit of a sum of Rs. 3.25 lacs with the learned trial court and further subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the learned court of S.D.J.M., Bikramganj, Rohtas in connection with Nasriganj (Rajpur) P.S.
