ORAL ORDER

3 03-05-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Amnaur P.S. Case No. 25/17, disclosing offences under Sections 308, 498(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner happens to be the husband of daughter of informant and allegation against him is of subjecting the daughter of the informant for non fulfillment of demand of vehicle as dowry. It further appears that learned Sessions Judge on assurance of the petitioner that he is ready to keep the daughter of informant, has granted provisional bail to the petitioner till 22.10.2018 but the provisional bail was cancelled vide order dated 20.11.2018 as no one appeared before learned Sessions Judge.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that he is ready to keep the daughter of informant with full honour and dignity but it is the daughter of informant, who refused to come with the petitioner and, thereafter, the provisional bail of the petitioner was cancelled.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the informant. They have opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the conduct of the petitioner does not entitle him for grant of pre arrest bail.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner rather petitioner should surrender before the court below and make prayer for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below will dispose of the same on the merit of the case, without being prejudiced by this order.

This application is, accordingly, dismissed
