CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 24-01-2019

Petitioner retired from the post of Supervisor (Telly-communication) in the respondent Company. He claims benefits of revision of pay. He served a copy of the writ petition on the counsel for the Board on 14.01.2016. Thereafter, the writ petition has been filed in January itself. The respondents on 22.07.2016 have communicated to the petitioner the details of the entire benefits payable to the petitioner upon revision of his pension. The details submitted by the Board is Annexure F to the counter affidavit. From the same it appears that during pendency of the writ petition the dues of admissible benefits and revised pension have been paid to the petitioner.

No useful purpose would be served by keeping the instant writ petition pending. Writ petition is disposed off. However, if the petitioner is aggrieved by the said calculation then it would be upon the petitioner to agitate his grievance before the authorities.
