ORAL ORDER

2 15-01-2019

The order which has been impugned, has not been annexed in the writ application. The petitioners had preferred an appeal before the Commissioner against the impugned order which apparently stood dismissed for default. The petitioners had remedy of appeal by filing appeal before the Tribunal which, too, they have not done.

This writ application, in such circumstance, cannot be maintained, which is accordingly dismissed.

The petitioners shall be at liberty to take recourse to appropriate provision of law for redressal of their grievances.

(Chakradhari Sharan Singh, J)
