CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
ORAL ORDER

4 17-05-2019 Heard learned counsel for the applicant and Shri Lalit Kishore, learned Senior Advocate for the respondent-Corporation.

The dispute of arbitration has been raised on account of certain payments that are due according to the applicant. Learned counsel has invited the attention of the Court to clause 25 of the agreement contending that the arbitration clause exists and that the applicant has already served the respondents with the statutory notice and after having waited for 30 days has applied for appointment of an Arbitrator.

Accordingly, invoking the powers under Section 11 (6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, I hereby appoint Hon'ble Mr. Justice P. K. Sinha (Retired) as the sole Arbitrator to enter upon the dispute and render his award in terms of provisions of the 1996 Act.

Let the information of this order along with papers be transmitted by the Registrar General to the sole Arbitrator for proceeding in the matter.

The application stands disposed of accordingly.
