CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

4 30-04-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Complaint Case No. 369/2018, disclosing offences under Section 341, 323, 504, 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Allegation as per the complaint petition is that petitioner and complainant was in love affair and subsequently they married and after marriage, they both were residing in the Nanihal house of the complainant. However, after some time, petitioner left the Nanihal house of the complainant and started residing with his parents and when complainant went there, they started demanding land and motorcycle as dowry.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that all the allegations are false and concocted and he is still ready to keep the informant with full honour and dignity.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the complainant. Learned counsel for the complainant has submitted that the complainant is also ready to live with the petitioner, if she is kept with full honour and dignity as a wife.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with direction to the petitioner and the complainant to appear before the concerned court below on 20.05.2019 and if the petitioner files a petition that he is ready to keep the complainant with himself with full honour and dignity and if he is willing to take the complainant with himself from the court itself, the court below shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for a period of 12 months to his own satisfaction and in the meantime, the court below will watch the conduct of the parties, specially the conduct of the petitioner by calling them in the first week of each month for a period of six months and after 12 months, if the court below is satisfied with the conduct of the petitioner, he will confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he is free to pass any order as he deems fit and proper including cancellation of provisional bail of the petitioner.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of
