ORAL ORDER

2 07-03-2019 The parties are in agreement that the claim of the petitioners in the instant writ petition is covered by the law recently laid down by a Full Bench of this Court in the case of Mobina Khatoon -Versus- State of Bihar & Others reported in 2019 (2) BLJ 9.

In view of the said position, no further orders need be passed in the instant proceedings. The claim of the petitioners has to be considered strictly as per the Full Bench judgment.

Writ petition is disposed of in light of the aforesaid submissions and the judgment of the Full Bench.

It is submitted that the petitioners would be representing before respondent No 4 in respect of their claim relying upon the decision of the Full Bench, taken note of herein above.

In the event, such an application is filed, the same should be considered expeditiously and without any undue delay.
