ORAL ORDER

4 07-08-2019 Petitioners seek bail in anticipation of their arrest in connection with Fulwaria P.S. Case No. 229 of 2018 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 364, 386, 420, 467, 468 and 465/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioners is that they have taken husband of the informant on false plea and not allowed her to go with her husband though she was ready to go with her husband. Further allegation is that in the evening when her husband did not come back she inquired about the same from the petitioners, who abused her and her husband is still traceless.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that as a matter of fact husband of the informant has executed a sale deed in favour of co-accused Munna Manji and now he has returned and his statement has been recorded by the Magistrate under Section 164 Cr.P.C. in which he has not made any allegation against the petitioners.

Heard learned APP also.

In view of above facts and circumstances, this application is disposed of with direction to learned court below to examine the statement of husband of the informant and if the submission of petitioners that he has not stated anything against them, he will be released on bail to its own satisfaction, otherwise the petitioners have to surrender and pray for regular bail.
