CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

4 17-06-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Tr. No. 1296/18 arising out of Complaint Case No. 350 of 2012, disclosing offences under Sections 323, 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner is of demand of dowry of Rs. One lakh and a motorcycle and due to non fulfillment of the demand, the complainant was subjected to cruelty and torture and was ousted from the house.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that he is still ready to keep the informant with full honour and dignity and the petitioner has also filed a case for restitution of conjugal rights in the family court and the allegation levelled is false and concocted rather the complainant herself does not want to live with the petitioner.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the complainant. Learned counsel for the complainant has also submitted that he is also ready to live with the petitioner, if she is kept with full honour and dignity.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with direction to the petitioner and the complainant to appear before the concerned court below on 01.07.2019 and if the petitioner files a petition that he is ready to keep the complainant with himself with full honour and dignity and if he is willing to take the complainant with himself from the court itself, the court below shall extend the provisional bail for a further period of six months and in the meantime, the court below will watch the conduct of the parties by calling the complainant and petitioner in the first week of each month for a period of six months and after six months, if the court below is satisfied with the conduct of the petitioner, specially the conduct of the petitioner, he will confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he is free to pass any order as he deems fit and proper including the cancellation of bail bonds of the petitioner.

With the above observation, this application is disposed
