ORAL ORDER

2 26-03-2019 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Revelganj Police Station Case No. 103 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 147, 341, 323, 188, 353, 427, 431, 283 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/4 of the Public Property Damage Act, 1984.

Allegedly, accused persons had obstructed movement of vehicular traffic on N.H. 19, while supporting a call for 'Bharat Bandh'. They are said to have obstructed the Police in due discharge of their official duties and damaged public and private properties.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there are 23 persons named and 200 not named, who are said to have committed offence, against whom the allegations are general and omnibus. The petitioner is named in the First Information Report.

Considering the general and omnibus nature of allegation, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-VIII, Saran, at Chapra, in connection with Revelganj Police Station Case No. 103 of 2018, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
