ORAL ORDER

4      06-05-2019                      This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Kishanpur P.S. Case No. 182 of 2010, disclosing offences under Sections 147, 148, 149, 324, 326, 307, 457, 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner is of assault to the informant causing injury to him.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the police after investigation submitted charge-sheet against the petitioner under bailable sections of the Indian Penal Code and petitioners were given the benefit of Section 41A Cr.P.C. and were released on personal bonds, however, cognizance has also been taken under Section 307 of the Indian Penal Code and due to which, the petitioner has moved this Court for grant of anticipatory bail.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also the fact that petitioners were earlier granted the privilege of section 41A Cr.P.C., as such, let petitioners surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks and pray for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below shall pass an appropriate order after considering the materials available on record as also the fact that petitioners were earlier granted the privilege of section 41A Cr.P.C. and were released by the police and they have also not misused the said privilege.

This application is, accordingly, disposed of.
