The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Dhangai P.S. Case No. 6 of 2015 for the offences punishable under Sections 457/380 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation is regarding some miscreants having committed theft in the house of the informant and upon the hulla being made by the informant, the petitioner and one other petitioner managed to escape from the custody and has been arrested by the police only after a lapse of four years.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case, he is having a clean antecedent and is languishing in custody since

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be enlarged on regular bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Bhojpur (Ara) in connection with Dhangai P.S. Case No. 6 of 2015.

It is further directed that the petitioner would mark his presence before the Officer Incharge of the concerned Police Station at 10 A.M. on each and every Monday of the week and on account of his failure on two consecutive occasions to mark his attendance, the present privilege of regular bail shall stand cancelled automatically.
