ORAL ORDER

4 08-05-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Cr. Misc. No.9851 of 2019 and Cr. Misc. No.15858 of 2019 arise out of Agiaon (G) P.S.Case No.98 of 2018.

The petitioners of both the cases are apprehending their arrest in connection with Agiaon (G) P.S.Case No.98 of 2018 , registered for offences punishable under Sections 304(B) /34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioners in Cr. Misc. No.9851 of 2019 are father-in-law and mother-in-law and the petitioner in Cr. Misc. No.15858 of 2019 is husband.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners in both the cases is that no specific allegation has been attributed and the postmortem report does not show any injury on the person of the deceased.

Heard learned A.P.P. and the learned counsel for the informant. They have opposed the prayer for bail on the ground that there were allegation of demand of dowry against the petitioners in Cr. Misc. No.9851 of 2019 also.

Having heard both sides and from perusal of the record it appears that there are allegation of demand against all the accused persons and that the allegation is general in nature, however, the materials show that it was the petitioner Rajeev Kumar, who provided tea to the deceased and thereafter she died in course of the treatment.

Considering the above facts and circumstances, so far petitioners in Cr. Misc. No.9851 of 2019, as named above, are concerned, they are directed to surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of order and on surrender they will be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned ACJM-VII, Bhojpur at Ara in connection with Agiaon (G) P.S.Case No.98 of 2018, subject to condition as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

So far petitioner of Cr.Misc. No.15858 of 2019, as named above, is concerned, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to him, he may move for regular bail, which will be considered on its own merit.

Accordingly, both the cases are disposed of.
