ORAL ORDER

2 02-04-2019 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the State and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Bihar State Cooperative Land Development Bank (hereinafter referred to as 'the Bank').

Counsel for the Bank raises a preliminary objection that the writ application against the Bank which is registered under the Cooperative Societies Act is not maintainable in view of the order passed in the case of Organizer, Dehri C.D & C.M. Union Limited Vs. The State of Bihar since reported by the Special Bench of this Court reported in 2014 (1) PLJR 695 since certain modalities have been fixed by this Court in CWJC No.14799 of 2012 in the case of Kamla Prasad Sharma v. The State of Bihar and others (analogous cases) vide its order dated 10.07.2013 without going into the maintainability of the writ application. This writ application is disposed of in similar terms of the order passed in the case of Kamla Prasad Sharma (supra) wherein certain modalities have been laid down for payment of retiral dues. The petitioner retired from the post of Regional Officer/Incharge, Branch Manager in the office of the Bank at Purnia with effect from 31.10.2012. He claims his retiral benefits which have not yet been paid to the petitioner.

Considering the judgment in the case of Kamla Prasad Sharma (supra) and that other employees of the Bank are getting retiral benefits as per the modalities laid down by this Court, this writ application is disposed of with a direction to the respondent no.4, The Managing Director, Bihar State Cooperative Land Development Bank, Budh Marg, Patna to pay the retiral dues of the petitioner as per the modalities fixed by this Court in the case of Kamla Prasad Sharma (supra) within a period of four months from the date of receipt/production of the copy of this order.
