CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 29-04-2019

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. The petitioner has been compulsorily retired from the post of Constable. He has approached this Court for a direction to have the allegations levelled by him investigated by any impartial agency.

3. The allegation, on face of it, appears to be quite vague.

4. What can be gathered from the petition is that some superior officer at Jharkhand had been taking the services of some of the Constables at his residence at the place of work and his Delhi residence. From the very tenor of the allegation, it appears that the petitioner is mouthing the grievance of some other person, who has some axe to grind against the superior officer. The present petition has been filed without there being any definite evidence of the irregularities alleged.

5. This Court would have imposed cost on the petitioner for coming up with such frivolous/vague petition but taking into account that he is no longer in service, no order is being passed on cost.

6. The petition, being meritless, is dismissed.
