The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Samastipur (M) P.S. Case No. 3 of 2019, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 120B of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Amarjeet Sahni is said to have taken Rs.40,000/- from the husband of the informant and on demand of money he had called her husband at Barrage of village whereupon her husband went there along with Ramesh Thakur. This petitioner and other named accused took liquor there and thereafter Amarjeet Sahni and Ramesh Tahkur took her husband on the motorcycle to unknown place and gunned him down.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that no such occurrence as alleged ever took place. Petitioner has no concern with the aforesaid occurrence. He has been falsely implicated in this case due to dirty village politics and animosity. Only allegation against this petitioner is that he had taken liquor along with other co-accused and the deceased at Barrage and there is no allegation of taking any money by the petitioner from the deceased or taking him away and gunning him down over the said money. The said allegation is attributed to Ramesh Thakur and Amarjeet Sahni. The deceased was having criminal antecedent and altogether ten criminal cases are pending against him. Only one criminal case under Excise Act has been registered against the petitioner and petitioner is on bail on the said case.

The learned A.P.P. for the State has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M.
