ORAL ORDER

2 02-04-2019 Heard learned Counsel for the parties concerned.

The land of these petitioners, it is being claimed, has been acquired invoking provision under Section 3G of the National Highways Act, 1956 (in short, 'the Act'). It is the grievance of the petitioners that the amount of compensation, which has been paid to them, is not adequate and in accordance with the decision of the Government to pay the compensation applying the principle for determination of compensation amount as incorporated in the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013.

If the petitioners have any grievance against determination of amount payable as compensation, they have statutory remedy under sub-Section (5) of Section 3G of the Act.

This application is disposed of with the only observation that if permissible, the petitioners shall be at liberty to raise their claim in accordance with the provision in sub-section (5) of Section 3G of the Act.
