CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

3 21-06-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Ekma P.S Case No. 262 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 498A, 302, 34 of IPC.

Petitioner happens to be the mother-in-law of the deceased and allegation against the petitioner and other accused persons is to kill her and fled away from the house.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that as a matter of fact, she met with an accident by the train which appears from the F.I.R. itself and they have falsely been implicated in this case.

On the other hand, learned APP has opposed the prayer for bail by stating that the witnesses have supported that she was subjected to torture also and apart from the postmortem report shows that five injuries on the person of the deceased.

Having heard both sides, in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below and make prayer for regular bail, the same shall be considered by the learned trial court on its own merit.

With the aforesaid, this application is dismissed.
