ORAL ORDER

3 14-05-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Ghoswari P.S. Case No.66 of 2017 disclosing offences under Sections 302, 120(B), 201, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Prosecution story is that one Ramu Paswan came at Chimni Bhatta and taken his brother Shashi Bhusan Yadav and thereafter, he did not return and later on dead body was found of his brother on NH-22. Petitioner was not named in the F.I.R, but later on name of the petitioner was transpired in the confessional statement of the co-accused.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that except confessional statement there is nothing on record against the petitioner.

Heard learned A.P.P. also who has opposed the prayer for bail on the ground that the confessional statement of the accused disclosed the name of the petitioner and also shows that the active participation of the petitioner. It further appears that they were implicated with respect to the money transaction.

Having heard both sides, in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner may move before the learned court below for regular bail which will be considered by the learned court below on its own merit.

With the aforesaid, this application is dismissed.
