Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned

APP for the State.

Petitioner seeks bail in Sogori P.S. Case No.121 of 2017 instituted for the offence under Section(s) 302/34 Indian Penal Code.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is not named in the written report.

In the written report, it is alleged that informant has performed marriage of her daughter with the petitioner about one year back. Her daughter has been done to death in her Sasural. On getting information from the relative, she went to PMCH along with petitioner and found her daughter injured, who died in course of treatment at PMCH on 13.10.2017. In the written report, the informant has levelled specific allegation that in the night of 09.10.2017, father-in-law of her daughter, Mahendra Yadav, poured kerosene oil over her body and mother-in-law, Chinta Devi, lighted the match stick causing serious burn injuries.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that informant has mentioned in the written report that his son-in-law, Rakesh Kumar, was in Masaudhi with her on the date of occurrence. The informant went to hospital after getting information along with this petitioner and saw her daughter was having serious burn injuries.

Case diary has been received.

Learned APP has submitted after looking into the case diary that this petitioner was with the informant at the time of occurrence. The other witnesses have not levelled any specific allegation of overt act against the petitioner. Police has submitted charge-sheet under Section 302 Indian Penal Code.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, prayer of the petitioner for grant of bail is allowed. Let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, V, Danapur, in connection with Sigori P.S. Case

No.121 of 2017, subject to the condition that both the bailors shall be close relative of the petitioner.
