APP for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest for the offences alleged under Sections 366(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code registered in connection with Jamui (Town) P.S. Case No. 530 of 2018.

3. It is submitted that the petitioner in Cr. Misc. No.

20243 of 2019 has been falsely implicated and as matter of fact there was love affair between the petitioner of Cr. Misc. No.20243 of 2019 (Md. Arbaz Alam @ Arman) and the informant's daughter. It is submitted that the deposition of the so-called victim recorded under Section 164 Cr. P.C. on 23.10.2018 was given under pressure of the informant by reason of which she has made allegations against the said Md. Arbaz Alam @ Arman and his brother Aman. Subsequently, the informant has filed another F.I.R. vide Jamui (Town) P.S. Case No. 256 of 2019 under Section 366/120B IPC in which the girl's deposition under Section 164 Cr. P.C. was also recorded which is a completely different version than her earlier one. She has categorically said that she had voluntarily accompanied Md. Arbaz Alam and solemnized marriage with him. It is further submitted that the second deposition corroborates the certificate of solemnization of marriage on 08.10.2018 showing the age of the girl as 18 years (Annexure-4) as well as the statement made in her petition dated 11.10.2018 before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jamui (Annexure-5) to the effect that her earlier statement had been given under duress. The petitioner claims clean antecedents.

4. The petitioners in Cr. Misc. No. 19518 of 2019 submit that they have been falsely implicated merely because they happen to be maternal uncle and brother of the main accused Md. Arbaz Alam. Both petitioners claim clean antecedents save and except the subsequent Jamui (Town) P.S. Case No. 256 of 2019 lodged by the same informant as aforesaid.

5. Learned APP assisted by learned counsel for the informant appears and has been heard.
