punishable under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner, who happens to be mother-in-law of the sister of the informant is said to have committed her dowry death by setting her ablaze in association of her family members.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner
that the petitioner has no concern with the aforesaid occurrence.
No such occurrence as alleged ever took place. As a matter of fact, husband of the deceased had left his service of Medical Representative and was sitting idle at home. The deceased used to ask her husband to search job and there has been some differences between the deceased and her husband over it and due to which the deceased committed suicide by setting her ablaze when the petitioner had gone to field. On getting knowledge of the occurrence, the petitioner along with other villagers rushed at the place of occurrence and doused the fire and rushed the victim to Hajipur hospital and from there to Appolo Burn Hospital, Patna, but she succumbed to her injury during the course of treatment. Petitioner has neither made any dowry demand nor ever subjected her to torture over the said demand. Allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. Petitioner happens to be lady having no criminal antecedent.

On the other hand, learned APP opposed the bail prayer of the petitioner.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Addl.
