ORAL ORDER

2 08-04-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

In this case, the petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Araria P.S. Case No. 362 of 2018 registered for offences under sections 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

In the present case, an allegation has been made that the Informant after closing the grocery shop was going to his house and when came near the Hira chowk, some unknown persons intercepted him and forcibly taken away the bag containing cash of Rs. 95,000/- and also a mobile phone.

In course of investigation, the co-accused has taken the name of the petitioner to be involved in the present case.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that same accused person has taken his name earlier which itself indicates the joint venture of both the persons.

Looking to the entire facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner, above named, is rejected.

If the petitioner surrenders before the court below within a period of four weeks from today and prays for bail, the court below, without being prejudiced by this order, will take a decision in accordance with law.
