CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SHIVAJI PANDEY
ORAL ORDER

2 16-04-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

In this case, the petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Silao (Nalanda) P.S. Case No. 158 of 2005 (G.R. No. 834 of 2005) registered for offences under sections 395 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegation made in the First Information Report, while the Informant along with one Anjani Kumar was returning from Eskara from his motorcycle, the accused persons by blocking the road came there and started abusing and assaulting them. Thereafter, they snatched money from the, tied their hand and legs and put into a ditch beside the road. The police came and untied them.

The name of the petitioner has come during investigation when he was identified by the witness.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case. He further submits that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Looking to the nature of allegation alleged against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory ail of the petitioner, above named, is rejected.

If the petitioner surrenders before the court below within a period of three weeks from today and prays for bail, the court below, without being prejudiced by this order will take a decision in accordance with law.
