CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

3 16-07-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

Petitioner, in the present case, is seeking anticipatory bail in connection with Parsa P.S. Case No.137 of 2018 for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 448, 324, 325, 307 and 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegations seem to be false inasmuch as there is no reason as to why this petitioner will come on the roof of the informant and will give her knife blow on her chest.

Learned APP has however opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail as according to him in the case diary the injury report has come which shows injury on the chest of the informant and thus there is specific allegation against the petitioner which finds support from the injury report.

In the given facts and circumstances where there is specific allegation of causing knife injury on the chest of the informant by this petitioner, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. This application is dismissed.

In case, the petitioner surrenders in the court below within a period of four weeks from today and prays for regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
