CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

5 06-08-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises

out of Complaint Case No. 487 of 2018, disclosing offences

under Section 498A/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section

3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Petitioner happens to be husband of the complainant and allegation against him is of subjecting the complainant to cruelty in connection with demand of dowry of Rs. Twenty

Lakh

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that all the allegations are false and concocted and he is still ready to keep the complainant with full honour and dignity.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the complainant. Learned counsel for the complainant has submitted that petitioner is residing at Mumbai and he is not paying any amount to the complainant for her maintenance. It has also been submitted that the complainant also wants to live with the petitioner, if she is kept with full honour and dignity.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with direction to the petitioner and the complainant to appear before the concerned court below on 16.08.2019 and if the petitioner files an affidavit that he is ready to keep the complainant with himself with full honour and dignity and if he is willing to take the complainant with himself from the court itself, the court below shall further extended the provisional bail of the for a period of nine months and in the meantime, the court below will watch the conduct of the parties by calling the complainant and petitioner in the fourth week of each month for a period of nine months and after six months, if the court below is satisfied with their matrimonial life and conduct of the parties, specially the conduct of the petitioner, he will confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he will be free to pass any order as he deems fit and proper in accordance with law including cancellation of provisional bail of the petitioner.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of .
