CORAM: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD

ORAL ORDER

3 02-09-2019 Mr Anshuman, CGC appearing for the Union of India takes a preliminary objection regarding maintainability of the instant proceedings as the petitioner has not exhausted the remedy by way of revision.

In view of the aforesaid objection being raised by the learned counsel for the Union of India, writ petition is dismissed with liberty to avail the remedy of revision before the Revisional Authority in view of the objection raised by the Union of India in paragraphs 11, 24 of the counter affidavit.

It is made clear that since objection regarding availability of alternative remedy has been raised by the respondents in their counter affidavit, petitioner would be at liberty to avail of such remedy before the Revisional Authority.

The Revisional Authority would be obliged to consider the same on its merits without raising the issue of the same being filed by delay, if the same is filed within four weeks from today.
