CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA ORAL ORDER

5 30-09-2019 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Chand P.S.
Case No.213 of 2018 registered under Sections 306 and 328 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that the petitioner took his daughter to his own house and tortured her. The informant came to know that the petitioner was having love affairs with the daughter of the informant. On 06.10.2018 the victim came to the house of the informant but her condition was very precarious and she died of poisoning.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that both the petitioner and the deceased were having love affairs and the informant objected. The daughter of the informant consumed poison and died. It is further submitted that during course of investigation, the neighbour of the petitioner disclosed that the daughter of the informant consumed poison in her house but it appears from the statement of the informant and other witnesses that the petitioner and the daughter of the informant fled away from the house and when they returned, both of them consumed poison. The petitioner survived but the daughter of the informant died of poisoning.

Having considered the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
