CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 22-04-2019 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Complaint
Case No.2071 of 2016 (C) registered under Sections 498A, 494 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is the husband of the complainant. The complainant alleged that her marriage was solemnized with the petitioner on 02.06.2012 but her husband started subjecting her to all sorts of torture only due to non-fulfillment of additional demand of dowry. Somehow the complainant lived with her husband with a view to improve conjugal relations. She also gave birth to a child but her husband continued to torture her.
She further alleged that her husband solemnized marriage with one Pushpa Kumari.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is ready to keep his wife but from the facts itself, it appears that within four years of marriage with the complainant, the petitioner solemnized second marriage and subjected his wife (complainant) to all sorts of physical and mental torture.

Having considered the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
