CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

4 03-07-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State as well as private respondent no.5.

2. The respondent no.5 was appointed on compassionate ground after the death of his father.

3. The present writ application has been filed by the petitioner raising the grievance therein that by concealment of fact as to pendency of criminal case, the respondent no.5 obtained appointment on compassionate ground. He submits that the petitioner is more qualified than respondent no.5 and he has no criminal antecedent and, as such, he has better claim for appointment on compassionate ground.

4. Compassionate appointment is not a reservation. It is only the process to tide over the financial crisis occasioned due to death of employee in harness.

5. Considering the aforesaid, the Court is not inclined to give any position direction for consideration of the case of the petitioner for appointment on compassionate ground.

6. So far as concealment of criminal case for appointment on compassionate ground of respondent no.5 is concerned, the petitioner may approach the competent authority, who would consider the same in accordance with law.

6. With the aforesaid, this application stands disposed of.
