4 07-08-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP representing the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Sanjhauli P.S. Case No. 112 of 2018, registered under Sections 323/442/307/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation against the petitioners, as per FIR lodged by Meera Devi, wife of Santosh Kumar, is that petitioners along with son Santosh Kumar have set the informant on fire, causing burn injury.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits the petitioner no.1 is father-in-law and petitioner no.2 is mother in law of the informant and there was dispute between husband and wife. He further submits that due to fight between husband and wife, the wife immolated herself and the petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that during course of investigation no material has come against the petitioners to connect them with this offence.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on the basis of case diary submits the statement of children of the informant was recorded, in which they have stated that the informant set herself on fire.

After having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the children of informant has stated during course of the investigation that the informant set herself on FIR due to fight with her husband, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

This application is, accordingly, allowed.

Let the petitioners, abovenamed, in the event of arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from today, be released on bail upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bikramganj Rohtas at Sasaram in connection with Sanjhauli P.S.
