ORAL ORDER

2 08-05-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Begusarai Mahila P.S Case No. 28 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 323, 341 and 498(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code, including Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

It transpires that, in course of investigation, the petitioner had been asked to appear before the police, invoking Section 41(A) of the Cr. P.C., consequent upon which, he has appeared before the police. The charge sheet has been submitted and cognizance has been taken.

Learned counsel for the informant, on the other hand, vehemently opposing the prayer for anticipatory bail, has submitted that the petitioner has filed a divorce case on frivolous and malicious ground.

Be that as it may, considering the nature of dispute between the husband and the wife, leading to lodging of the FIR, this application is allowed. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned SDJM, Begusarai in connection with Mahila P.S. Case No. 28 of 2018, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
