ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR)

4. 03-07-2019 On call, a prayer is being made on behalf of petitioners to grant accommodation. This prayer was made in presence of Mr. Nadim Seraj, learned Govt. Pleader – 5. Yesterday also, when the case was called out, there was non-appearance on behalf of petitioners and today, the prayer for adjournment has been made.

Mr. Seraj, learned Govt. Pleader – 5 submits that virtually, the writ petition has become infructuous, since the petitioners were directed to report before a police station till 31st of May, 2019. Besides this, it has been argued that against the order impugned, there is already statutory provision.

Be that as it may, considering the fact that the life of impugned order has already been lost, there is no reason to grant any accommodation.

The criminal writ petition stands dismissed as same has become infructuous.
