ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 26-07-2019

Heard Mr. Rama Kant Sharma, learned senior counsel for the petitioners and learned GA 7 for the State.

2. In terms of the order dated 02.07.2019, the District Magistrate, Gaya is present in Court. He has filed his 6th and 7th show cause.

3. The application has been filed alleging willful and disobedience and violation of the order dated 26.07.2012 passed in CWJC No. 17637 of 2010. The direction of the writ Court were three fold. Firstly, the District Magistrate, Gaya was to call for a list from the Civil Surgeon, including those of seasonal workers which includes DDT Sprayers. Secondly, he had to prepare a panel and thirdly, to proceed with the appointment.

4. From the materials on record, it appears that such exercise was required to be completed within six months but inordinate delay has taken place.

5. However, coming to the merits of the matter, the District Magistrate, Gaya has shown to the Court specific statement along with the relevant materials in support thereof which indicate that on 16.03.2018, a panel of 18649 persons was prepared, which includes all such persons who had either made application or whose name had been forwarded by various Departmental Authorities, including the Civil Surgeon, Gaya and the objections were asked. Pursuant thereto, on 22.01.2019, the panel was finalized. Thereafter, finally on 22.07.2019, a list of 145 persons has been prepared which is not a panel and only the list as per the existing 145 vacant posts on which appointments were to be made, which has been finally published and recommended for appointment.

6. The District Magistrate, Gaya has informed the Court that further 260 posts have been identified which are vacant and on which appointment shall also be made from the existing panel of the remaining candidates. The District Magistrate, Gaya had demonstrated before the Court that whatever procedure they have followed, was as per the guidelines of the State Government, which was existing on the date of the order of the writ Court which was subsequently qualified by the order of the Division Bench in LPA No. 1329 of 2013 dated 20.01.2015.

7. Having considered the aforesaid, the Court finds that though belatedly but the present District Magistrate, Gaya has finally complied with the order of the writ Court. Accordingly, the applications stand disposed off.

8. However, it shall be open to the petitioners to move before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law, if they have any remaining grievance or if in future, their cases are not considered, in accordance with the aforesaid panel prepared dated 22.01.2019.

9. Personal appearance of the officer stands dispensed with.

10. Further, it has been informed by the District Magistrate, Gaya with regard to the list which would be prepared for 260 posts, which are likely to be filled up, objection has been asked till 30th of this month. Thus, if the petitioners so desire, they may also give their objections. The District Magistrate, Gaya has assured the Court that all such objections filed within time shall be duly considered and disposed off.
