CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 21-08-2019

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner; Mr. Lalit Kishore, learned Advocate General along with Ms. Binita Singh, learned counsel for the Bihar State Housing Board (hereinafter referred to as the 'Board'); learned AC to AAG 7 for the State and learned counsel for the EPFO.

2. Considering the submissions of learned counsel for the parties and materials on record, the Court finds that the opposite parties have complied with the order dated 11.05.2016 passed in CWJC No. 17481 of 2015.

3. Accordingly, the application stands disposed off.

4. However, with regard to the period when the Board received the application from the petitioner and forwarded the pension papers of the petitioner to the EPFO, i.e., about 10 months, interest at the rate of 8% shall be paid by the Board to the petitioner. At this juncture, learned counsel for the parties submitted that in view of the petitioner drawing about Rs. 2,200/- pension per month, the amount of 8% interest shall work out to about Rs. 1,500/-.

5. In such view of the matter, it is agreed between the parties that a sum of Rs. 1,500/- shall be paid to the petitioner by the Housing Board within three weeks. It is also noted that a cheque of Rs. 408/- has been handed over by learned counsel for the Board to learned counsel for the petitioner by way of interest on GIC. The same has been accepted by learned counsel for the petitioner.

6. Further, the detailed calculation chart, head-wise, shall be provided to the petitioner within three weeks from today.

The petitioner shall be at liberty to file a representation, if he finds any error in the calculation, before the Managing Director of Board, who shall look into the matter and pass a reasoned order within four weeks of filing of such representation.
