CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN
ORAL ORDER

3 02-08-2019 Heard learned senior counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest for the offences alleged under Sections 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code registered in connection with Dhanarua P.S. Case No. 484 of 2018.

3. It is submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated merely because he happens to be the father-in-law of the deceased. It is submitted that the petitioner was at Masaurhi for earning his livelihood and upon coming to know about the death of his daughter-in-law, he rushed back to his village. It is submitted that the deceased committed suicide by consuming poison as her husband had left her and became traceless. It is further submitted that in any event, there is no accusation of demand of dowry, harassment and cruelty soon before the death and as such, the ingredients the offence alleged are not made out. It is submitted that the petitioner's wife had been arrested and has since been granted regular bail. The petitioner claims clean antecedents.

4. Having regard to the nature of accusations and gravity of offence alleged, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The anticipatory bail petition stands dismissed.

5. If the petitioner surrenders and seeks regular bail before the learned trial Court the same shall be considered on its own merit in accordance with law on the same day and without being prejudiced by any observation in the present order.
