ORAL ORDER

3      04-02-2019                      Learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the application of petitioner No.1 and this application is dismissed as withdrawn.

Heard the parties.

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail in connection with Ekma P.S.Case No. 104 of 2018, registered for offences punishable under Sections 279, 337, 338, 341, 323, 324, 307 and 325/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation as per F.I.R. against the petitioners is that a four wheeler dashed the informant when the informant were going with his sister and niece and thereafter, the petitioners and an unknown persons armed with hocky stick, iron rod and lath-danda, causing injuries on her temple and Sangita sustained injury on her head.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that they have falsely been implicated in this case and from the F.I.R. it clearly shows that they have falsely been implicated in this case and all injuries are simple in nature. It is further submitted that the petitioners have no criminal antecedents.

Learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the informant opposes the prayer for bail that one injury is grievous in nature on the right ear of one Guriya Devi.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances as discussed above, let the petitioner Nos.2 and 3, above named in the event of their arrest or surrender, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty five thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each in connection with Ekma P.S. Case No.104 of 2018, to the satisfaction of learned A.C.J.M. 1st, Saran at Chapra, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 92) of Cr.P.C. with condition that one of the bailors of the petitioners shall be a local person having sufficient immovable property within the jurisdiction of the concerned Court.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of.
