ORAL ORDER

2 16-01-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Mahila P.S. Case No. 121 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 341, 323, 498(A)/34, 354 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner happens to be husband of the informant and allegation against him is of subjecting the informant to cruelty in connection with demand of dowry of Rs. Seven Lakhs for purchasing the land.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that he has been working in Military Service and as a matter of fact the informant is pressurizing the petitioner to live with him at his place of posting, which is not possible and due to which, this false and concocted case has been lodged and he is still ready to keep the informant with full honour and dignity as a wife.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with direction to the petitioner to surrender in the court below within a period of six weeks and on his surrender, the court below shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for a period of three months to his own satisfaction and in the meantime, the court below will notice the informant and petitioner and on appearance of the parties, the court below will found out as to whether, the petitioner is ready to keep the informant with himself or not and if it is found that there is no fault on the part of the petitioner, the court below will confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he is free to pass any order as he deems fit and proper .
