CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT KUMAR SRIVASTAVA

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT KUMAR SRIVASTAVA)

Date : 19-12-2019

Both parties are present in person along with their respective learned counsels.

The parties have already settled their dispute by filing their joint compromise petition dated 17.08.2019 at flag 'C' and in pursuant to aforesaid compromise petition, the remaining payment of Rs. 8,00,000/- (Eight Lakhs) has already been paid to respondent no. 1 which is admitted by respondent no. 1 before this court. Furthermore, it is informed on behalf of parties that the petition under Section 13(B) of Hindu Marriage Act, has also been prepared and, apart from this, the petitions which are to be filed in pending cases have also been prepared and the same would be filed before the respective courts in due course and, thereafter, parties shall get disposed of the cases which are pending between them.

Since the parties have settled their dispute and have agreed for disposal of this appeal in terms and condition of compromise petition dated 17.08.2019, there is no need to keep this appeal pending. Accordingly, this appeal stands disposed of and the marriage of appellant and respondent is hereby dissolved by decree of divorce and the impugned judgment dated 10.03.2017 passed in Matrimonial (Divorce) Case No. 1 of 2009 stands modified to the above-stated extent.

The compromise petition dated 17.08.2019 shall be part of the decree. However, it is made clear that if any of the parties backs out from the above-stated compromise petition dated 17.08.2019, the other party shall be at liberty to file interlocutory application petition for recall of present order.
