ORAL ORDER

8 26-03-2019 The provisional bail granted to the petitioners vide order dated 21.2.2018 and further extended vide order dated 29.8.2018 is expired in February, 2019.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite parties submits that petitioners are simply buying time and there is no honest effort on their behalf to restore normalcy.

Under the aforesaid circumstances, the Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners or extension of period of provisional bail as such prayer for anticipatory bail is hereby rejected.

However, rejection of the prayer for anticipatory bail will not cause prejudice to the petitioners, if the petitioners surrender before the court below and prays for grant of regular bail, the court below is directed to decide the prayer of the petitioners for grant of regular bail without being influenced by the rejection of the prayer for anticipatory bail and dispose of the same on the same day.
