ORAL ORDER

4 07-08-2019 At the very outset, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner points out that supplementary affidavit dated 24.09.2018 has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for removal of defect no. 3 which is on the record and, accordingly, he prays that in the light of supplementary affidavit dated 24.09.2018, defect no. 3 be ignored.

In view of the aforesaid submission, defect no. 3 is ignored.

This petition has been preferred for restoration of C.W.J.C. No. 8647 of 2017 which stood dismissed on 16.08.2017 due to non-compliance of peremptory order of this court.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that order of this court was complied by the petitioner within time but unfortunately, the office made wrong calculation as a result of which C.W.J.C. No. 8647 of 2017 stood dismissed for default. However, as soon as petitioner got notice of dismissal of above stated writ petition, he has preferred the present restoration petition.

In view of the aforesaid submission, dismissal order stands set aside and C.W.J.C. No. 8647 of 2017 is restored to its original number.

In the aforesaid manner, this restoration petition stands disposed of.
