ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 18-10-2019

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2 Counsels are in agreement that the issue, whether late refund of amount of Leave Travel Concession (for brevity, LTC) advance would not constitute a misconduct, now stands settled as per decision of this Court in the proceedings arising out of CWJC No 12086 of 2009 (Ganga Safi -Versus- Life Insurance Corporation of India & Others) as well as decision of the Division

Bench in LPA No 1275 of 2012 (Life Insurance Corporation of India & Others -Versus- Praful Chandra Jha). The employee, at best, would be liable for refund of the amounts as per the procedure prescribed under the LTC Rules, 1994 of respondent-Corporation.

3 Having regard to the admitted position, based on precedents referred to by the learned counsels, the penalty, under order dated 27.07.2002 passed by respondent No 3, Senior Divisional Manager is unsustainable as the same is in a proceeding wherein petitioner has been alleged to have delayed in refund of LTC advance.

4 The order of punishment is, therefore, quashed. The order of the Appellate Authority dated 15.07.2003 rejecting the petitioner's appeal against the order of punishment dated 27.07.2002 affirming the order of punishment is also unsustainable for the same reason. The order passed on the Memorial by the Chairman dated 09.07.2004, whereby the punishment has been upheld, is also quashed.

5 Writ petition is allowed.

6 The petitioner, as a result, would be entitled to all consequential benefits which would be subject to the decision of the Authorities as emanating from the LTC Rules of 1994 considered hereinabove.
