CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

5 24-10-2019 Petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in connection with Dhanarua Police Station Case No.471 of 2018 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner happens to be the husband of the deceased of dowry death.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that there is no allegation of demand of dowry and torture for the same. Rather petitioner was working outside and as a matter of fact she has committed suicide by taking poison. The postmortem report also shows that the cause of death is not ascertained and viscera report has been preserved.

On the other hand, heard learned A.P.P. also, who has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail on the ground that the witnesses during investigation has supported the prosecution case. The deceased is the wife of the petitioner and her dead body was found in the house.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, above named. However, if the petitioner surrenders and pray for regular bail, the same shall be considered on the basis of material available on the record.

With the aforesaid, this application is dismissed.
