ORAL ORDER

2 26-06-2019 Though this application has been listed under the heading “For office Notes”, with certain defects pointed out by the Stamp Reporter, considering the nature of controversy involved, I am disposing it of, by the present order after learned counsel for the petitioners.

2. The petitioners have questioned an order passed by the Deputy Collector Land Reforms, Sadar, Madhubani as competent authority under Bihar Land Dispute Resolution Act, 2009 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act') dated 12.03.2018.

3. The petitioners have remedy of appeal against the said order, which apparently they have not availed.

4. This application is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioners to prefer appeal against the impugned order. Evidently, an appeal against the impugned order would be barred by limitation. The petitioners shall be at liberty to apply for condonation of delay in preferring the appeal, which shall be considered by the appellate authority on its own merit, in accordance with law.
