Petitioners are named in the FIR and there is allegation as per FIR is that altogether 25 accused persons, including the petitioners came to the field of the informant and cut the crops and on protest the petitioners and others, who came on horses along with rifles, made indiscriminate firing and further they demanded Rs.10,000/- from the informant as extortion.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that there is land dispute between the parties as one co-accused has purchased some land in the same plot and informant does not want to allow them to cultivate the land and as such they have falsely been implicated and in support of his contention learned counsel has drawn my attention towards Annexure-2 series and further there is no allegation that anybody has received any firearm injury and they have no criminal antecedent.
