ORAL ORDER

3 01-07-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Complaint Case NO. 2130 of 2014, disclosing offences under Sections 420,467,468.471 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code.

It is alleged in the complaint petition that the persons named in the complaint case had executed sale deed in favour of the complainant in respect of land on 22.06.2010, whereas for the same land a sale deed was already executed in favour of someone else.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that there are altogether six persons named in the First Information Report and the main allegation is against co-accused Kaushal Kishore Thakur. Petitioner No.1 is mother of said Kaushal Kishore Thakur, whereas petitioner Nos. 2,3 and 4 are his sisters and petitioner No.5 is the son of one of the sisters of said Kaushal Kishore Thakur.

Learned counsel has submitted that considering the civil nature of dispute between the parties and there is no likelihood of the petitioners' fleeing away from the course of enquiry or trial before the Court below, the petitioners deserve anticipatory bail. He has informed this Court that co-accused Kaushal Kishore Thakur has been granted regular bail by the Court below.

In view of the above, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioners above named in the event of their arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the Court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned ACJM-cum Sub-Judge-13, Muzaffarpur in Complaint Case No. 2130 of 2016 (Trial No. 859 of 2019), subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioners shall present themselves before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
