ORAL ORDER

2 21-06-2019 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned counsel representing the complainant.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Complaint Case No. 1905C of 2017 for the offence punishable under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

It seems from the complaint petition that the marriage between the petitioner and the complainant was solemnized in 1995, but it is alleged that the petitioner has solemnized another marriage.

Be that as it may, considering the nature of dispute between the parties, leading to lodging of the complaint case, a case for grant of anticipatory bail is made out.

This application is accordingly allowed.

Let the petitioner above named, in the event of his arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the Court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned S.D.J.M., Bettiah, West Champaran, in Complaint Case No. 1905C of 2017, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
