CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

3 19-09-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioners are seeking anticipatory bail in connection with Nathnagar P.S. Case No. 128 of 2019

registered under Sections 420/34 of the Indian Penal Code, pending in the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhagalpur.

Earlier vide order dated 11.07.2019 passed by learned coordinate Bench of this court, the petitioners have been granted privilege of provisional bail. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that on perusal of the F.I.R. it would appear that it is a pure and simple civil dispute and even in the counter affidavit which has been filed on behalf of the informant it has been submitted that the petitioners have taken money for religious Puja, the allegation is that they had collected money of Haat and have caused loss of Rs. 15,00,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Lakhs) to the informant. In the nature of allegations learned counsel submits that the petitioners deserve the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the informant has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail, as according to him these petitioners have misappropriated the entire money.

In the given facts and circumstances of the case, considering the nature of allegations which are all about the loss allegedly caused by these petitioners to the informant and seems to be a pure and simple money claim, let the provisional bail granted to the petitioners vide order dated 11.07.2019 be confirmed and they are allowed to remain on their respective bail bond.
