The Police has investigated the case and every witness has taken the name of the present petitioner.

Looking to the nature of allegation, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the prayer for bail is rejected. However, if the petitioner surrenders before the Court below within three weeks from today and prays for regular bail, the Court below will consider the same and pass appropriate order without being influenced by the order of this Court considering the fact that co-accused, Chitranjan Mishra has been granted regular bail.
